Seckford Wines Broking Terms & Conditions

We are pleased to sell wines on behalf of our customers through our fine wine lists and global customer base

• Pricing is agreed via direct email or through the Seckford website facility, at which point the Seckford Wines broking terms & conditions are accepted

• Commission is a flat 10% fee – no other charges apply

• We will have exclusivity on the agreed sale of wines – wines must not be offered for sale elsewhere for the duration of the Seckford listing

• All wines must be delivered to Seckford Wines prior to being offered for sale. In some instances Seckford Wines will be able to arrange collection

• All Sellers will be given access to the Seckford Online Portfolio, where they can view their wines and wines for sale

• Wines will be held, pending sale, in the Seller's name, uniquely identified, at Seckford Wines own warehouse. No other charges apply for the duration of sale. Any wines removed from sale that remain in storage with Seckford Wines will be charged at the current rate (see our website's storage page for more details)

• Sales updates are sent out by email on a weekly basis. Payments are made 30 days from sale

• Seckford Wines reserves the right to deduct any outstanding amounts due on the Seller's sales ledger account from the proceeds

• In the event that a wine sale is cancelled within 30 days then the seller will be notified and the wine returned for sale in their Seckford account

• Seckford Wines conducts regular reviews of wines remaining unsold (usually eight weeks from listing), at which time we may contact the Seller to discuss a revision of pricing to reflect market values/conditions. In the event of a Seller deciding to withdraw the wines from sale, they will be returned to the owner or alternative Bond according to the Seller's instructions. Our usual ex-reserve delivery charges will apply

• Force Majeure – we shall not be liable for any failure to meet our obligations occasioned by circumstances beyond our reasonable control
